Re-employment of turners in Maruti Udyog

*274. CHOWDHRY HARI SINGH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that most of the employees including turners appointed in 1975 by the Maruti Udyog Ltd. were retrenched in 1977 as a result of the closuse thereof;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is also a fact that most of the employees including turners, retrenched in 1977 have since been re-employed; and

(d) whether Government propose to re-employ the remaining employees including turners, if any: if so, by when and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SMT. KRISHNA SAHI): (a) to (d) Maruti Limited which was set up on 4-6-1971 went into liquidation and was wound up by an order passed by the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh on 6th March, 1978. A liquidator was appointed on 22-7-1977 and subsequent to this appointment all employees of Maruti Limited were discharged. The assets of the erstwhile Maruti Limited were acquired by Government under the Maruti Limited (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980. Some of the retrenched employees of the erstwhile Maruti Limited filed Petitions from time to time in the Courts seeking re-employment in Maruti Udyog Limited, which were rejected by the Courts. However the Government of Haryana made a reference of the industrial disputes raised by some employees of the erstwhile Maruti Limited to the Labour Court in 1988. The Labour Court made an award in their favour on 28-7-1993. The award has since been stayed by the High Court. The matter is now subjudice.
